

Northwestern Mutual Provides $225,000 in Grants to Local Nonprofits

Company employees nominate Milwaukee-area organizations during Days of Sharing program

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 21, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Northwestern Mutual, through its Foundation, is dedicating its support to causes that are meaningful to the company's employees with grants totaling $225,000. Twenty-five local nonprofits will receive $1,000 to $10,000 on behalf of Northwestern Mutual employees through the company's Days of Sharing program, now in its 10th year.

"We continually strive to cultivate a culture focused on giving back, and our employees are a key part of this," said Eric Christophersen, president, Northwestern Mutual Foundation. "Our Days of Sharing program provides an opportunity to celebrate the season of giving while honoring the volunteer service and community support given by dedicated employees."

Beginning in October, employees nominated their nonprofits of choice. From that group, 25 organizations were chosen at random. Northwestern Mutual also encouraged employees to vote for pre-selected nonprofits to receive grants totaling $125,000. This year, the top five chosen from this list are Alzheimer's Association of Wisconsin, Girls Who Code, Fisher House Wisconsin, National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) Greater Milwaukee and Latino Veterans Legacy of Valor Foundation.
