

A.M. Best affirms Northwestern Mutual's A++ rating, highlights its leading market position

MILWAUKEE, May 27, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- A.M. Best Company has affirmed the A++ financial strength rating of Northwestern Mutual and Northwestern Long Term Care Insurance Company. A++ is the highest possible rating from A.M. Best, an indication of Northwestern Mutual's strong financial position and ability to meet policyowner commitments.

"The ratings reflect Northwestern Mutual's leading market position and the strength of its franchise as the top writer of whole life insurance in the United States, its highly productive exclusive distribution system and superior risk-adjusted capitalization," A.M. Best said in its news release. "The ratings also recognize Northwestern Mutual's favorable liability profile and the strength of its business profile as one of the largest mutual insurance companies in the United States."

Highly predictable performance

A.M. Best also commented on Northwestern Mutual's predictable performance. "The company's large block of traditional participating whole life insurance is viewed favorably in terms of product creditworthiness, and the company historically has exhibited favorable investment, expense, persistency and mortality results."

The rating agency said Northwestern Mutual's products do not include aggressive features and provide "stable, long-term cash flows that contribute to the organization's favorable and highly predictable operating performance."

Industry's best ratings

Northwestern Mutual continues to have the highest financial strength ratings awarded to any life insurer by all four of the major credit rating agencies: A.M. Best Company, A++ (highest), May 2015; Fitch Ratings, AAA (highest), November 2014; Moody's Investors Service, Aaa (highest), December 2014; and Standard & Poor's, AA+ (second highest), July 2014. Ratings are subject to change.
