S&P affirms Northwestern Mutual's AA+ rating; commends its risk management

MILWAUKEE, June 21, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- S&P Global Ratings (formerly Standard & Poor's Rating Services) has affirmed Northwestern Mutual's AA+ financial strength rating, noting its excellent business risk profile and strong enterprise risk management.

"We expect Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. and its subsidiary, Northwestern Long Term Care Insurance Co., to maintain its extremely strong competitive position while maintaining extremely strong capital and exceptional liquidity," S&P said in its ratings report.

The rating reflects Northwestern Mutual's strong financial position, judicious expense management and ability to meet policyowner commitments.

Rating rationale

"We regard Northwestern Mutual's business risk profile as excellent," said S&P. "Our view is supported by the company's leading market position in the individual life insurance segment, highly effective distribution force and very strong operating performance."

The rating agency also recognized the company's enterprise risk management (ERM) and governance. "Northwestern Mutual's strong ERM reflects a positive risk-management culture and positive controls of key risks," said S&P. "The company's management team is well-seasoned and clearly manages for long-term stability and strength, with a commitment to mutuality and the policyholder."

The agency added, "The company has shown consistent commitment to its distribution and to its core individual life insurance product line."

Best ratings

With this latest affirmation, Northwestern Mutual continues to have the highest financial strength ratings awarded to any life insurer by all four of the major rating agencies: A.M. Best Company, A++ (highest), May 2016; Fitch Ratings, AAA (highest), May 2016; Moody's Investors Service, Aaa (highest), January 2016; and S&P Global Ratings, AA+ (second highest), June 2016. Third-party ratings are subject to change. Ratings are for The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company and Northwestern Long Term Care Insurance Company.
