

Moody's and Fitch Affirm Northwestern Mutual's Financial Strength Ratings

Moody's: "Exceptional Business and Financial Strengths" and "Robust and Resilient Balance Sheet"

Fitch: "Exceptionally Strong Capitalization, Leading Competitive Position and Conservative Liability Profile"

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 23, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Moody's Investor Service and Fitch Ratings have affirmed Northwestern Mutual's financial strength in recently released reports. Both entities awarded Northwestern Mutual the highest financial strength ratings: Aaa from Moody's and AAA from Fitch. Our company continues to be one of only two U.S. life insurers rated Aaa by Moody's.

According to Moody's, its rating reflects Northwestern Mutual's "exceptional business and financial strengths" and "robust and resilient balance sheet," while Fitch called out the firm's "exceptionally strong capitalization, leading competitive position in the U.S. individual life insurance market and conservative liability profile." Both rating agencies noted several competitive advantages, including Northwestern Mutual's distribution system, large and stable block of traditional life insurance, and conservative liability profile.

"These recent ratings reports underscore the depth and span of Northwestern Mutual's strengths – extending from our exceptional financial strength and competitive position to our highly productive distribution system," said Todd Jones, vice president and controller. "Our company is uniquely positioned for the future as we help our clients achieve financial security."

Key Drivers

Among the key drivers underpinning the Moody's and Fitch ratings of Northwestern Mutual were the following:

A leading competitive position in the sale of traditional cash-value life insurance, through a strong and highly productive career distribution system, provides very favorable credit characteristics.

Conservative liability profile, as approximately 80 percent of Northwestern Mutual's general account reserves are whole life insurance, considered by both agencies to have stable reserve requirements and low-risk product design.

Strong operating results on a risk-adjusted basis, and a stable history of earnings due to favorable mortality and high persistency from the life business and disciplined expense management practices.

A mutual ownership structure that aligns the interests of the company and its policyholder and creditors.

Industry-leading financial strength ratings

With this latest affirmation, Northwestern Mutual continues to have the highest financial strength ratings awarded to any U.S. life insurer by all four of the major rating agencies: A.M. Best Company, A++ (highest), April 2017; Fitch Ratings, AAA (highest), July 2017; Moody's Investors Service, Aaa (highest), July 2017; and Standard & Poor's, AA+ (second highest), June 2017. Third-party ratings are subject to change. Ratings are for The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company and Northwestern Long Term Care Insurance Company.
