

A.M. Best Affirms Northwestern Mutual's Financial Strength Rating

Ratings Agency Highlights Strong Balance Sheet, Financial Advisors and Operating Performance

MILWAUKEE, May 7, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- A.M. Best has affirmed Northwestern Mutual's A++ (Superior) financial strength in a recently released report, the highest possible rating from the agency. The rating reflects Northwestern Mutual's balance sheet strength as well as "very strong operating performance, very favorable business profile and very strong enterprise risk management."

According to A.M. Best, Northwestern Mutual has a robust risk-based capital position combined with a high quality of capital. Company reserves are enhanced by our focus on whole life insurance, according to A.M. Best, which categorizes it as the highest creditworthy product on its scale. In addition, Northwestern Mutual's "low risk tolerance on its products and capital management strategy is consistent with its ratings."

"The affirmation of our ratings earlier this year by Moody's Investors Service and now A.M. Best reflects that our financial strength remains exceptional," said Todd Jones, vice president and controller. "It's this financial strength and core operating fundamentals that demonstrate how Northwestern Mutual is best positioned to help our clients continue achieving financial security."

Key highlights

A.M. Best also noted:

The company's General Account investment portfolio is highly diversified with a well-managed asset-liability management strategy.

Very strong operating performance is reflective of low earnings volatility compared with others in the industry and a "proven track record of remaining profitable throughout a full market cycle."

Northwestern Mutual's exclusive distribution system of financial advisors¹ is "a distinct competitive advantage, with strong market positions in the whole life insurance line of business." The recruitment program benefits from consistent additions of new talent, according to A.M. Best.
