Northwestern Mutual Donates $225,000 Through Annual Days of Sharing Program

Nonprofit organizations receive support through employee nominations

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 2, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Northwestern Mutual, through its Foundation, is recognizing Milwaukee and New York area nonprofits with grants totaling $225,000 through its Days of Sharing program. The annual program encourages the company's employees to nominate a local nonprofit or organization to receive funding on their behalf from the Northwestern Mutual Foundation.

"As a company, we always strive to better the lives of those in the communities we serve," said Eric Christophersen, president, Northwestern Mutual Foundation. "Our Days of Sharing program aims to honor the deep passion our employees have toward making a real difference."

Through Days of Sharing, Northwestern Mutual employees nominated local nonprofit organizations and causes they support. The 25 recipient organizations were chosen throughout the month of November, with $100,000 given in individual grants ranging from $1,000 to $10,000.
