

Northwestern Mutual Ranked as Sixth-Largest Independent Broker-Dealer by Financial Advisor Magazine

MILWAUKEE, April 6, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- Northwestern Mutual's wealth management business continued its ascension with another prominent third-party recognition announced this week. Financial Advisor magazine, a leading trade publication for the financial advice industry, ranked the company as the sixth-largest independent broker-dealer firm by gross revenue – moving up one spot from 2022. The firm has maintained a top-10 position on the ranking for more than a decade.

Northwestern Mutual's wealth management business continued to grow..

"This ranking proves what we've heard from clients and seen in our business results – more Americans than ever are looking to Northwestern Mutual for wealth management expertise," said Aditi Javeri Gokhale, the company's chief strategy officer, president of retail investments and head of institutional investments. "Our wealth business is growing faster than our competitors, and that's a remarkable accomplishment in this time of market volatility. Most importantly, our approach to planning – combining investments, insurance and annuities – is proven to deliver better financial outcomes to clients more often, and it will continue to fuel our exceptional growth."

Northwestern Mutual is a leading provider of wealth management and investment solutions. In 2022, the firm's wealth business saw its second-highest annual net cash flows of nearly $22 billion, ending the year with $227 billion in total client assets. Additionally, Northwestern Mutual's investment offerings and advisors have received a growing number of accolades and recognition in recent years. Forbes included more than 130 Northwestern Mutual advisors on its 2023 Best-in-State Wealth Advisors lists and 11 advisors were recently recognized by Barron's.
