In its announcement, Fitch said the ratings reflect "Northwestern's very strong competitive position in the U.S. individual life insurance market, exceptionally strong balance sheet fundamentals and stable earnings profile."

"Fitch's affirmation is yet another independent confirmation of our commitment to long-term financial security for our policyowners," said Chris Kelly, Northwestern Mutual vice president and controller. "They appreciate our focus on the fundamentals, conservative approach to financial management, and the competitive advantages of a field force that is second-to-none."

Our competitive advantages

Among Northwestern Mutual's competitive advantages, Fitch cites our successful distribution system, large and stable block of traditional life insurance and focus on expense control.

"Northwestern Mutual's extremely strong balance sheet fundamentals reflect the company's very strong risk-based capital position, modest financial leverage, excellent liquidity and relatively low-risk liability profile," Fitch's news release said.

Highest financial strength ratings awarded

With this latest announcement, Northwestern Mutual continues to hold thehighest financial strength ratings awarded to any life insurer by all four of the major credit rating agencies: A.M. Best Company, A++ (highest) 4/2012; Fitch Ratings, AAA (highest), 6/2012; Moody's Investors Service Aaa (highest), 10/2011; and Standard & Poor's AA+ (second highest), 6/2012. Third-party ratings are subject to change.
