“Life Insurance Awareness Month is a great reminder for everyone to consider their life insurance needs,” says Dave Simbro, Northwestern Mutual vice president – life products. “Achieving financial security is about much more than accumulating wealth; it’s about accumulating and protecting that wealth. Life insurance plays a key role, providing financial protection in case of premature death.”

The company also announced today that it has joined the LIFE Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping consumers make smart insurance decisions to safeguard their families’ financial futures. Life Insurance Awareness Month is one of three annual awareness campaigns spearheaded by LIFE.
