MILWAUKEE, May 2, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company and Northwestern Long Term Care Insurance Company (NLTC) today announced that A.M. The ratings reflect Northwestern Mutual's sizable and mature participating ordinary life insurance franchise, consistently positive operating performance and superior risk-adjusted capitalization, according to A.M. Best.

Northwestern Mutual continues to hold the highest financial strength ratings awarded to any life insurer by all four of the major credit rating agencies: A.M. Best Company, A++ (highest) April 2013; Fitch Ratings, AAA (highest), December 2012; Moody's Investors Service Aaa (highest), December 2012; and Standard & Poor's AA+ (second highest), June 2012.¹

Competitive advantages, policyowner value

A.M. Best attributed the ratings to the "loyalty and productivity" of Northwestern Mutual's financial representatives and its competitive advantages, including the company's "historically favorable investment, expense, persistency and mortality experience" on its life products.

"These advantages allow Northwestern Mutual to consistently provide policyowners with dividend rates that are among the industry's highest, further contributing to the company's excellent persistency and leadership position in the individual life insurance market," A.M. Best said.

Strong long-term care sales

Despite the challenging low interest rate environment, A.M. Best noted that NLTC hasn't raised premiums on in force policies since it entered the market in 1998.

"NLTC has exhibited solid revenue growth in recent years, reflecting strong long-term care insurance sales associated with improving economic conditions, as well as several recent market exits and significant premium increases by its shrinking list of competitors," the agency said.
